GLEE CLUB IN KANSAS CITY

M. U. Student Makes a Hit as Woman Impersonator.

The Kansas City Times published the following account of the concert given by the University of Missouri Glee and Mandolin Club last Friday night:

"The prominence of Julian Eltinge as a woman impersonator is in danger of being crowded to mere eminence. Frank W. Yale, a Kansas City young man, established such a belief in the minds of several hundred people who attended the concert given last night at Westport High School by the University of Missouri Glee and Mandolin Club. Yale, a third-year student at the university, was on the program as a special number, and in modish attire of a young woman, established such a conviction that he really was a girl that only removal of his hat and wig at the conclusion of the act could remove the delusion. Yale's home is at 4154 Harrison street.

"He is only one of nine Kansas City boys with the glee and mandolin club. W. Eugene Cowan, piano accompanist, lives at 3541 Brooklyn avenue, and his playing was so well appreciated, even as an accompanist, as to cause a request for a piano solo by him. Other Kansas Cityans with the club are: Norman D. Twitchell, Princeton Hotel; Arthur A. Brackett, 206 East Thirty-Fifth street; Rudolph O. Eysell, 37 East Thirty-second street; Howard Boone, 4144 Warwick boulevard; Emmons B. Whisner, 2808 Charlotte street, and Earle M. Duffield and Merle H. Duffield.

"There are thirty-seven students with the glee club. The organization is under the management of Frank E. Gillett, assisted by Frank Matthews. Virgil C. Kline is the president and Reinhardt Egger secretary. Prof. Chester Murray is musical director. "The club came here from Warrensburg, where it gave a concert last Thursday night. It will go to Atchison, where a concert will be given tonight. The itinerary included, beside Kansas City and Warrensburg, Sedalia, St. Joseph, Savannah and Hamilton. The tour is to close next Wednesday night at Hamilton."

GERMANY WANTED ISLANDS

U. S. Defeated Plans of Teutons by Buying West Indies.

By United Press
COPENHAGEN, April 9.—The United States main purpose in purchasing the Danish West Indies from Denmark was to defeat known German plans to establish a Zeppelin and submarine base there.

It was heard on the highest authority here today that months ago the United States began negotiations with the Danish government for the islands in order to divert schemes of the Imperial German government to obtain possession of these strategic points. It was this reason that impelled the United States to finally purchase the islands as a source of protection for the American flag by eliminating the possibility of Germany's getting a foothold near the shores of this country.

Whether Germany planned to purchase the islands or to seize them from Denmark was not made clear.
